

TRICARE® AND MEDICARE

UNDER AGE 65

Remaining TRICARE-eligible when you become entitled to Medicare before age 65

You may become entitled to Medicare under age 65 in certain circumstances:

- End-Stage Renal Disease (ESRD): You may become eligible for Medicare coverage beginning on:
 - The first day of the fourth month of renal dialysis treatment
 - The first month of a regular course of dialysis treatments, if you meet both of these conditions: (1) You participate in a home, dialysis training program offered by a Medicare-approved training facility during the first three months of your regular course of dialysis; and (2) Your doctor expects you to finish training and be able to do your own dialysis treatments.
 - The month you're admitted to a Medicare-certified hospital for kidney transplant, if your transplant takes place in that same month or within the next two months; or two months before your transplant, if your transplant is delayed more than two months after admission to the hospital.
- Disability: You become eligible for Medicare beginning the 25th month of receiving Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) payments. The Social Security Administration (SSA) notifies you of your Medicare entitlement start date.

Learn more about Medicare eligibility at www.medicare.gov.

If you're entitled to premium-free Medicare Part A before age 65, you may need to have Part B coverage in order to keep your TRICARE benefit. The charts that follow take into account the reason for your Medicare eligibility and your sponsor's status and will help you determine if you must have Medicare Part B to keep TRICARE.

Depending on your eligibility status, you may be eligible for:

- TRICARE Prime®: If you're entitled to Medicare Part A, you may remain enrolled in TRICARE Prime until reaching age 65, as long as you continue to meet all eligibility requirements. Additionally, if you're age 65 or older, you may remain in TRICARE Prime if you have an active duty sponsor. Active duty service members (ADSMs) must be enrolled in TRICARE Prime regardless of Medicare entitlement status. ADSMs and their family members entitled to Medicare Part A can avoid paying the Medicare Part B late-enrollment monthly premium surcharge by enrolling during their Part B Special Enrollment Period (SEP). This doesn't apply to those with ESRD. The SEP is available anytime while the sponsor is on active duty and you're covered by TRICARE, or within the first eight months following either: (1) the month your sponsor's active duty status ends or (2) the month TRICARE coverage ends, whichever comes first. To avoid a break in TRICARE coverage, ADSMs and active duty family members must sign up for Medicare Part B before the sponsor's active duty status ends. Regardless of age, retired service members and their family members who are entitled to premium-free Medicare Part A must have Part B to remain TRICARE-eligible.
- TRICARE For Life (TFL): The TFL program provides Medicare-wraparound coverage for TRICARE beneficiaries who have both Medicare Part A and Part B, regardless of age or place of residence. When using Medicare providers, TFL beneficiaries typically have no out-of-pocket costs for services covered by both Medicare and TRICARE. When health care services are covered only by Medicare, TRICARE pays nothing, so you're responsible for paying the Medicare deductible and cost-shares.

When health care services are only covered by TRICARE, Medicare pays nothing, so you're responsible for paying the TRICARE deductible and cost-shares.

Medicare doesn't pay for health care services you receive from providers who opt out of Medicare. When you see an opt-out provider, TFL pays the amount it would have paid (normally 20% of the TRICARE-allowable charge), if Medicare had processed the claim. You're then responsible for paying the remainder of the billed charges.

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) providers can't bill Medicare, and Medicare can't pay for services received from the VA. If you're eligible for TFL and VA benefits and choose to use your TFL benefit for non-service connected care, you'll incur significant out-of-pocket expenses when seeing a VA provider. By law, TRICARE can only pay up to 20% of the TRICARE-allowable amount. If you receive care at a VA facility, you may be responsible for the remaining amount. When using your TFL benefit, your least expensive option is to see a Medicare participating or Medicare non-participating provider. If you want to seek care from a VA provider, check with Wisconsin Physicians Service, which administers the TFL benefit, to confirm coverage details.

- TRICARE Reserve Select (TRS), TRICARE Retired Reserve (TRR), and the US Family Health Plan (USFHP): TRS, TRR, and USFHP enrollees entitled to premium-free Medicare Part A aren't required to have Part B to keep TRS, TRR, or USFHP. However, these enrollees are encouraged to enroll in Medicare Part B when first eligible to avoid paying the Medicare premium surcharge if they sign up at a later date (for example, during the Medicare General Enrollment Period). Enrollment in TRS or TRR
